

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is a HIGH SABBATH! While it is the 15th day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring, it is also the authentic first day of the seven-day FEAST OF SUKKOT (FEAST OF TABERNACLES). It looks like 07-15-5993. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs., 10-31-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

CAMPING IN HEAVEN [SHAMAYIM]

By Jonathan Cahn

It was Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles. The students were sleeping outside in sukkahs—tabernacles of branches, wood, and fruit. I was one of them. During the night the teacher paid me a visit. We sat and talked through the night.

“This is how it looked,” he said, “in Jerusalem, in the days of the Temple. The Holy City was filled with tabernacles inside of which the people of Israel lived for the seven days of the festival. They were to dwell as they did when they journeyed through the wilderness to the Promised Land, as a commemoration and memorial of that event. Is there anything strange about that?”

“They were camping out in their homeland, living in the Promised Land as if they were still living in the wilderness.”

“And what does the Promised Land ultimately represent? Heaven! And what does the wilderness represent? The journey to heaven...our days on earth. So if those in the Promised Land are living in tabernacles to remember how Yahuah Alahim (God) guided and protected them when they journeyed in the wilderness, will not we in heaven remember our days on earth and give thanks to Him for His keeping us through our journeying there? You see, in the Feast of Tabernacles, the two realms, the Promised Land and the wilderness, come together. And that joining bears witness of a mystery: The realm of heaven and the realm of earth are joined. What you do in the earthly realm touches the realm of the heavenly. And what is done in the heavenly realm touches the earthly. While on earth, you are to store up treasures in heaven. And what you bind on earth is bound in heaven. When you pray, you are to pray that as it is in heaven, it will be on earth. And as you pray on earth, you are to enter the heavenly throne of Yahuah Alahim (God). Messiah is the mediator between the two. He is the joining of the heavenly with the earthly. So those who live trusting in the Messiah and walking as He walked, are to live in both realms, in the joining together of two realms. You see, in the realm of salvation, heaven is not only there and then, but it is also here and now.”

“Learn the mystery of the Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) and the secret of living in the realm of the heavenly even now. For if those in the Promised Land can dwell in the tabernacles of the wilderness, then we on the wilderness journey can dwell even now...in the tabernacles of heaven.”

The Mission: Learn the secret, while living in the earthly realm, to dwell in the heavenly realm. Live in the realm of heaven and earth as one. Leviticus 23:40-43; Ephesians 2:6; Revelation 7:9

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, Yahuah Alahim, in the name of your Son Yahusha ha Mashiach, Creator, Sustainer, and Savior,

On this first day of Sukkot, we gather with hearts full of gratitude. As we dwell in these temporary shelters, we remember the journey of Hebrews through the wilderness, guided by Your presence. It reminds us of Your provision, even in barren places, and Your compassion to strengthen our faith in Your unfailing love.

May this feast draw us closer to You, and may we find joy, peace, and unity as we celebrate Your appointed time prepared as a promise of an eternal future in Heavenly Places with You. Let our hearts be open to Your truth and our spirits receptive to Your unending blessings.

In Your sacred and set-apart name, of your Son Yahusha haMashiach, we pray. Amen.

Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!)

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES
Sukkot
Shemoth 29: 46

"And they shall know that I am יהוה their Alahim, who brought them up out of the land of Mitsrayim, to dwell in their midst.
I am יהוה their Alahim."
