

Happy New Moon Day to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is Day One of the Creator's authentic Eighth Lunar Month (08-01-5,993), which coincides with the Roman Gregorian solar calendar Sat. 11-16-2024. His years are measured from spring to spring. Each month, it is awe-inspiring to watch the full moon rise in the East and make its way along the east-west time continuum under the Creator's tireless direction. Then, see with your own eyes that moment when the sun's first rays shine forth to greet the descending full moon before it sets in the west. They greet each other with a nod and agreement that this moment, while visible from opposite coordinates together, marks the start of the new lunar month. Honoring His New Moons as declared from His sacred Torah Law shows Him who desires to enter through the pearly gates of His Eternal Kingdom government. I hope to see you there! HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”

Psalms 89:15-16

THE FRUIT OF THE RUACH—SELF-CONTROL

"Every man that strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Corinthians 9:25

IN HIS early life Paul must have been keen on sport! He uses the phrases for the gymnast, the boxer, and the racer. He had probably stood, many times, watching the great games, which were held in various parts of the Greek-speaking world. He knew the long and arduous training through which competitors had to pass.

Paul was running a race for an imperishable wreath. He had no doubt as to his goal, and therefore did not run uncertainly. He went straight as an arrow to its mark, and his mark was to win souls for Messiah. To gain some, to save some, was his passion (1Co 9:22). He needed to discipline himself, putting aside much that was innocent in itself, and which others could enjoy without reproach (Rom 14:13-21). The Apostle was also engaged in a boxing-match, his own body being the antagonist. He knew that Ruach haKadosh power existed for his appropriation in Messiah, but to have it he must be a Ruach haKadosh man, and to be that necessitated the subdual of his fleshly appetites.

We must exercise "self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control." It is best to hand over the whole of our nature to the Master, and ask Him to direct, control, suggest each day whatever we think, or do, or say. It is infinitely happier to be -controlled than self-controlled. Happy are they who from the earliest are able to subordinate the delights of sense, however innocent, to some high quest of the Ruach haKadosh. The soldier has to forfeit many things which are legitimate for the civilian, because he must be able to march rapidly from place to place. He has to forego the use of many comforts, but he is compensated if his name is placed on the honors list. The husbandman has to submit to hardships of weather, and to encounter difficulties and discomforts which do not occur in the lives of others; but there is no other way if he is to procure the fruits of his toil. These deny themselves for lower considerations, but we have an infinitely higher object in view; but by so much the more should we lay aside every weight. Never forget Yahusha, the Messiah, risen from the dead, is your great example and life-giver—the source of all Ruach haKadosh power. ~ Our Daily Walk

Your time as a caterpillar has expired...

*B*ehold, I show you a mystery;
We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment,
in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump:
for the trumpet shall sound, and
the dead shall be raised incorruptible,
and we shall all be changed.

2 Corinthians 5:18

Your wings are ready.
