

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the eighth day of our Creator's Ninth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 09-08-5993. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sun., 12-22-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

Celebrating Christmas with the Pagans

Have you ever considered why the annual Biblical holy Feast days (sacred celebrations) are absent between fall and spring? As Bible believers, it's also worth contemplating why the popular Roman holidays are not explicitly mentioned in Scripture. These include Christmas, Easter, New Year's Day (January 1st), and Valentine's Day. Unveiling their origins reveals a connection to pagan practices passed down from ancient Babylonian traditions. These were then repurposed by the Romans, who integrated them into their new solar calendar and "Christian" framework.

Despite their attempts, they could not logistically intertwine these PAGAN TRADITIONS with authentic Biblical narratives. This is because their roots firmly trace back to the early post-flood era, the Babylonian seat of Satan. But also, the pagan-crafted holidays only fit on a solar manmade calendar. These celebrations mark the birth of the Babylonian Religion, embodied by figures like Nimrod, Semiramis, and their son Tammuz. Interestingly, various cultures across the globe adopted these Babylonian deities under different names. All of them appear to be born on December 25th. These include Tammuz of ancient Babylon, Krishna of India, Mithra of Persia, Horus of Egypt, and Buddha in India. Additionally, we can add Beddou of the Orient, Quetzalcoatl of the Western Hemisphere, Hercules of Greece, Attis of Phrygia, and Osiris of Egypt.

According to the written word of Scripture, our Messiah was born on the full New/Renewed Moon Day of the sixth lunar month. . .

Kerrie's Korner:

Poem ~ Celebrating Christmas with the Pagans

Beneath the glow of festive cheer,
A deeper truth may yet appear—
A tale of customs old, obscure,
Of origins far from holy, pure.

When frosty air and carols chime,
Do we pause to ponder time?
Why sacred Feasts, from fall to spring,
Find no winter's bell to ring?

The Romans forged a festive spell,
A borrowed script they'd never tell.
From Babylon's cradle, dark and deep,
Sprang days the Scriptures bade us keep.

Oh, December twenty-five's allure!
Birthdays shared with gods obscure—
Tammuz, Mithra, Horus, all,
Their shadows cast on Yuletide's hall.

Saturnalia, wild with cheer,
Draped the solstice every year.
With revelry, gifts, and evergreen,
A pagan tale became routine.

The tree of Asherah, trimmed with pride,
Stands upright, though its roots we hide.
Adorned with gold, a glimmering crown,
Echoes Babel's idols long renowned.

“Santa,” an anagram, sly and neat,
Switch his letters, whom do we meet?
Yet parents lie with smiles sincere,
“Here’s a gift from Santa, dear.”

And let’s not forget the reindeer lore,
Babylon’s walls, their carvings store.
The serpent’s tree, mankind’s first fall,
Decorates our decked-out halls.

You say, “He wasn’t born that day,
But let’s pretend, it’s just our way.”
Yet pray for me? Because I pause
To shun this mix of script and flaws?

“Come out of her!” the call is clear—
Babylon falls, its end is near.
Why cling to ways the nations prize,
When truth’s bright star illumines skies?

Leviticus outlines YAHUAH’s Feasts,
From spring to fall, His sacred tests.
Each marks His plan, salvation’s thread,
Through the Lamb who rose from the dead.

His birth, not winter's solstice cold,
A new moon bright the Scriptures hold.
The sixth month bore Messiah's cry,
A full moon graced the ancient sky.

But Daniel warned, the scribes would scheme,
And alter times with twisted dreams.
So, was His birth obscured by lies,
To blend with pagan enterprise?

"Christmas," once banned in days of yore,
A pagan tag Americans swore.
Now embraced, its roots concealed,
While holy days remain repealed.

Peace on Earth? Goodwill to men?
Align with Him, and start again.
Reject the customs wrought by hands,
And walk the path the Lamb commands.

The Savior calls, His voice is true,
"Come out, My people; I wait for you."
For in His love and laws divine,
True joy and peace forever shine.

So, pause beneath the tinsel's glow,
And ask yourself, "Do I really know
Why the world hates Yah's holy ways,
Yet adores all Satan's masquerades?"

I am praying that Yahusha bring you HOPE, JOY, and PEACE as you seek faithfulness to Him, during this winter season! Psalm 29:11

Where Yahusha is, we see Light in the darkest places...

Hope in times of uncertainty...

Joy in difficult circumstances...

Compassion in the presence of need...

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
