

Shabbat Shalom,

To all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Eleventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 11-29-5993. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Wed., 03-12-2025.

New Moon Day of the twelfth and last month of this lunar year will occur on Friday, March 14 of the pagan Roman calendar.

Note: The website is still down. Please pray that the website is not lost in all the changes taking place and that a smoother transition begins to take place.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

THE ADERET

By Jonathan Cahn

It was the middle of the afternoon. We went up a high mountain and to the same cave in which we had seen the engraving of the cherub with the out-stretched wings. The teacher went inside without me and soon emerged holding a large garment, a robe of sorts, made of a rough light brown material.

“A mantle,” he said, “but unlike the one I showed you earlier, it’s made of camel’s hair, as in the mantle of Elijah, the one he cast onto the shoulders of Elisha, signifying that Elisha would follow in his footsteps as a prophet of Yahuah Alahim (God). Can you imagine being Elisha and feeling Elijah’s mantle coming over you?”

“It must have been overwhelming. He must have felt totally inadequate.”

“Undoubtedly,” said the teacher, “but so did all the others who received their mantles. From Moses to Isaiah, to Jeremiah, to Peter, they all felt unworthy of the mantle given them, and with good reason ...the mantle was too big. It didn’t fit. But that’s the nature of the mantle. In Hebrew, the mantle is called the aderet. Aderet means large, big, great, wide, powerful, excellent, noble, mighty, and glorious. You see, the mantle is bigger and greater than the one it’s given to. And so too it is with you.”

“With me?”

“With all His children. Each one is given a mantle, a calling. And you will be given yours. But remember, your mantle is your aderet, and the aderet always speaks of greatness. So your calling will be too big for you. It won’t fit. It won’t match who you are. And there will be times when you’ll struggle with that, with its magnitude in comparison to who you are. It will always be greater, more powerful, more noble, more excellent, and more glorious than the one who wears it and to whom it was given.”

“But why? Why does Yahuah Alahim give us mantles that are too big and don’t fit?”

“Your mantle is not meant to fit who you are. It’s meant to fit who you are to be, and who you are to become. Just as when you were a little child, your parents bought you clothes that didn’t fit, that were too big. It wasn’t to fit who you were, but who you were to become. So too your mantle must be beyond you, that you can grow into it, that you can rise to it. So never be discouraged by the difference in size. It must be that way that you might become greater, more excellent, more noble, more powerful, and more glorious than you are now.”

The Mission: Today, embrace the aderet, your mantle. Accept its greatness and that it's over and above you. Believe it, and in the power of Yahusha the Messiah, rise to it. 1 Kings 19:19; 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; 2 Corinthians 3:5-6; Ephesians 4:1.

[Disclaimer: Please note that "The Book of Mysteries" is Jonathan Cahn's notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of "The Teacher" in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don't meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn, as there are many beliefs we don't hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of "The Teacher."]

Kerrie's Korner

Do you remember the words of our Messiah who said, "For many are called, but few are chosen." (Matthew 22:14.) This relates directly to the calling to a higher standard, a receiving of the mantle or aderet.

Several controversial doctrines have arisen over this statement of our Messiah. Some declare that it shows that only some are predestined unto salvation, while others have no possibility of Salvation. But the reality is that all are called and "few choose." It is entirely based on our own choices. This is because a foundational principle of Yahuah Alahim's government is "freedom of choice." So the mantle is received or not based upon each person's freedom to choose. They must "put off the old man, the old nature, which is corrupt..." (Ephesians 4:22). This means each person, no matter their background, can be forgiven and set right on the path of Salvation and receive the mantle of His calling. HalleluYAH!

So this brings us to 1 Corinthians 1:26, "For you see your calling brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called." So why are these not called with a mantle from above? It is because they are already full. They are full of themselves, through pride, greed, power, control, riches, beauty, etc. When we are full of ourselves, there is no room left to be full of YAHUAH Alahim or His Son, our Messiah.

The mantle or aderet comes from the same Hebrew word (H# 4598 - me'iyil מעיל) as a cloak, coat, or robe. It was not represented by a shoe, belt, or holy underwear. Might there be a tie between this mantle of calling and the robe worn by the Priests signifying the Messiah in the Sanctuary/Temple? (Exodus 28:4, 28:31, 28:34, 29:5, 39:22-26, Leviticus 8:7). Yes, but why? Because it is Salvation's mysteries worked out in the Temple that illustrates who it is that provides the mantle for each called individual who chooses to put it on. It is none other than our Messiah. It is all about YAHUSHA haMashiach (the Messiah) in ancient times as well as today.

“I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; My justice was like a robe and a turban.” Job 29:14

“I will greatly rejoice in YAHUAH, My soul shall be joyful in my Alahim; For He has clothed me with the garments of salvation, He has covered me with the ROBE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.” YeshaYAHU (Isaiah) 61:10 NKJV

In the Messiah’s parable of the Wedding Feast, a man showed up without the pre-ordained wedding garment.

"But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who did not have on a wedding garment. So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' “For many are called, but few are chosen." Matthew 22:11-14

Revelation has this to say about the mantle/robe at the end of time:

“After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands...” Revelation 7:9

“And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, ‘What are these which are arrayed in white robes? And whence came they?’ And I said unto him, ‘Sir, you know.’ And he said to me, ‘These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.’” Revelation 7:13-14

So it is that all the saved of the earth who are invited to the Wedding Supper of the Lamb (Salvation unto Eternal Life) will be covered with the mantle of the Messiah's Righteousness (His wedding garment) to signify their faithfulness and obedience to His calling. It is His GREAT & MAGNIFICENT mantle that covers our nakedness that takes the unworthy man, woman, or child and restores them unto salvation. What a Messiah and Eternal Father we serve! HalleluYAH!!!

Song: He Will Come to Save Us (Isaiah 35:4) ~ Messianic Worship Song

Prayer:

O Most High Yahuah, in the name of your Son Yahusha haMashiach,
You who clothe the heavens in majesty and wrap the earth in Your splendor,
We come before You in humility and awe, longing to be covered in Your righteousness.

You have called us with a calling far greater than ourselves,
A mantle too wide, too glorious, too noble for our unworthy shoulders.
Yet, in Your wisdom and mercy, You do not call the equipped,
But You equip the called, shaping us into the likeness of Your Son, Yahusha HaMashiach.

Father, we stand before You as Elisha stood before Elijah,
As the weak before the mighty,

As the unworthy before the righteous King.
Yet You do not cast us away,
But instead, You drape over us the aderet—
The mantle of Your purpose, the covering of Your righteousness.

Let us not shrink back in fear or doubt,
But instead, by faith, may we grow into the calling You have set before us.
Clothe us in the garments of salvation,
Cover us with the robe of righteousness,
That we may be found ready at the coming of our Bridegroom.

Purify our hearts, that we may not be filled with ourselves,
But emptied, made ready to be filled with You.
Let the prideful be humbled, the weary be strengthened,
And the unworthy be transformed by the blood of the Lamb.

O Yah, prepare us for the great and glorious day,
When the white-robed multitude shall stand before Your throne,
Cleansed, redeemed, and clothed in the righteousness of our King.
Until that day, help us to walk in faithfulness,
Holding fast to the mantle You have placed upon us,
That we may be found worthy to enter the Wedding Feast of the Lamb.

HalleluYAH!

Aman.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
